Transforming UMPSA's Reading Habits: The Reading Circle Prog

29 December 2023

Reading is one of the most important skills that students need to succeed in their academic journey. In an age dominated by digital distractions and the ever-growing allure of bite-sized information, it is easy to get lost in the digital world and away from the age-old practice of reading. This has far-reaching consequences, affecting not only academic performance but also the development of critical thinking and analytical skills.
