Concerned with the struggle faced by the frontliners and healthcare workers to combat the spread of Covid-19, UMP Holdings Sdn. Bhd (UMPH), a subsidiary of Universiti Malaysia Pahang (UMP), helps produced 1,000 face shields and 1,000 bottles of hand sanitizer water to the healthcare workers.

UMP Services Sdn. Bhd. produces the face shields while Imani Agro Industries Sdn. Bhd. donated the drinking water to UMP Holdings Sdn. Bhd.

The donations was handed over by General Manager, UMP Services Sdn. Bhd., Mohd. Sanusi Abdullah to the Ministry of Health frontliners who was represented by Nurilham Ibrahim dan Nancy Borubui.

Also present were Human Resources Manager, Adlan Maarop and Project Manager, Mohd Hairuddin Idris from the Health Department.

According to Sanusi, a total of 1,000 face shields were distribute to Ministry of Health frontliners in this state under the coordination of the Pahang State Secretary's Office.

"This donation is one of the social responsibility initiatives for the community as the country faces the threat of the virus," he elaborates further.

He added, this initiative is another form of community service at the moment; with each company and individual trying to ease the burden of frontline workers in battling the spread of the Covid-19 outbreak.

Meanwhile, Hairuddin said, 30 volunteers from UMP Holdings and Group were working hand-in-hand to take necessary precautions such as social distancing and regularly use of hand sanitizers were also implemented and also producing the face shields.

UMP Holdings have also cooperate with the UMP Alumni Society in donating drinking water to the frontliners at roadblocks all around Gambang.

The 'triUMPH Frontliners' donation was also introduced to collect the people's money in order to donate and the donation will be carry out weekly.

On the other hand, UMP Holdings also supplies hand sanitizers to ensure it is always consistent and sufficient.

A group of students from Universiti Malaysia Pahang (UMP) made a remake of the song 'Sakit' by Zynaka, titled 'Kita Jaga Kita', to encourage the fight against the spread of the COVID-19 that has affected countries around the world.

With academic backgrounds in Engineering and Technology, these students' creative effort was a calling to the public to follow the Movement Control Order (MCO) which has been implemented in Malaysia since 18 March 2020.

The students involved are Nur Nissa Halimah Rahmat, a student from Faculty of Computing and her two friends, Nur Nissa Halimah Rahmat, a student from Faculty of Mechanical and Automotive Engineering Technology, and Dinie Almatin Asfarin from the Faculty of Computing.

They are also members of the Solo Singing Club, UMP's Culture and Arts Secretariat.

During the interview, Nur Nissa stated that she firstly wanted to express her gratitude to Zynakal for all the support and encouragement.

advisor, Noor Afiza Mohd Azmi who has given much encouragement to her and her friends.

"The production of the song was an effort in response to the government's call to the people to work together during the COVID-19 epidemic," she said.

She also shared her experience in producing the song which took a day.

"It took us about two hours to come up with lyrics that included elements of advice."

"We then sang and recorded the song individually from our own homes."

"Once the recording process was completed, we further communicated and emailed the material for further

Although they were undergoing MCO at home, it did not stop them from producing the song especially with Nissa lives with family in Johor Bahru, Harris in Perak, and Dinie in Selangor.

She added that some of the challenges faced were limited internet access. However, it was not a major obstacle.

She further highlighted that the song was a dedication for Malaysians, especially as a tribute to the COVID-19 victims.

She hoped that the song would raise awareness and to serve as a reminder to fellow Malaysians.

She believes that the song's message is one of the best approaches to occupy people's time who are currently on campus.

This song has been uploaded to UMPTV's YouTube channel at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iEUU...> Facebook page.

Among the lyrics is a call for the cooperation of Malaysians to fight COVID-19, be wary, a misstep will be easily infected and the disease is not easy to stop.

Aside from focusing on their studies, these students are known on campus to be active in singing as they host University's official events.

Lyrics of 'Kita Jaga Kita' (We care for/protect each other)

It's a request for all
Open your heart and open your eyes
It's a plea to all
To avoid corona

Dear friends, let's work together
Come on people, let's take care of Malaysia
Let's fight the corona, don't fumble
This error could be dangerous

When a person is sick, be careful
It hurts him but not just him
This Covid-19 is easily infectious
The disease is not easy to stop

Look
We must listen to the instructions
We must stop this disease
Cooperate, don't be selfish

Oh order control, movement control
So please remember, i'll remind
Just stay at home, stay with family
Or friends, oh we protect each other

Oh, be diligent with washing your hands
When something is needed

Let only one go

It's a request for all
Open your heart and open your eyes
It's a plea to all
To avoid corona

This disease is destroyed when we work together
Wake up friends, let's fight corona
Police army doctors nurses are protecting the country
Just stay at your home guys, we protect each other

Oh the virus is everywhere
Don't be ignorant
Don't go crazy
Everything is on you

Corpses are scattered
You still don't understand
Once it hits you
Then you'll be scared to death

Keep your eyes open
Don't seek death
As death is heartless
Then you'll be terrified

Let wealth not be luxury
As long as there's no complain
Just stay at home
Do what is right
