Ramadan on Campus

In the campus's hallowed halls, Ramadan's grace,
Students, away from home, find a sacred space.
Fasting from dawn till dusk, a spiritual quest,
In unity, they break their fast with zest.

Amid lectures and books, dreams unfold,
Ramadan's blessings in studies, a tale told.
Sharing iftar's joy, a bond so true,
Campus friendships bloom in Ramadan's hue.

Chasing dreams through exams and stress,
Patience and perseverance, their compass.
In this sacred month, they find the way,
On campus, under Ramadan's sway.

A second home, where dreams take flight,
Students break fast, sharing the night.
Ramadan's embrace, a journey divine,
On the campus, where dreams align.
